How can a woman he chairman New York produces more hops the any other American state. While the airship races are in prog ress the wise spectator will stand from under. Striking bell boys in New York are kicking on their meals, an infringement on the prerogntive of the pa-

Does anyone still imagine that wealth guarantees the happiness of homes? If so, let him read the news

It will soon be time for Uncle Mark Twain to exchange that winter white sult for a summer fur overcoat. It son City. pays to advertise.

Henry James says he never heard nose indicates a large brain. Not necessarily. It may indicate lack of Probably that Wabash minister who has dedicated his seven hundredth church has not had time to notice the alleged decline in religion. We don't know whether it is true or not that the robins are beginning to worry for fear the cherries this year won't be ripe as soon as usual. The next king of Spain will be for tunate in taking hold of a government that has begun to think about the future instead of dwelling in What a sad waste of money the submarine boats would have represented if it had been discovered at this late date that their crews could not live Having tried the whipping post, Baltimore does not like it. There are very few cities in the country whose social conditions are so desperate as to demand such a remedy.

tions among the little republics of Central America. If one of them speaks above a whisper all the rest of them fingle the burglar alarm. Farmers who were mad becau they could not get cars to haul their wheat to market are glad now that they were compelled to keep it till the price went sky-rocketing. In 1897 the Greek emigrants to the United States numbered only 57. For the three years 1903-1-5 the total was $5,000, and for the fiscal year 1906 the er had risen to 23,000 The British barmaids will next proceed to storm the house of commons for their preservation. The chances are that they will be less fervently re-sisted than were the suffragettes. Mauser rifles have been made by their inventor much more deadly than before. Possibly he has been grieving over what they didn't do to the Amer cans during the war with Spain. St. Paul doubtless requires the women to keep silent in the churches so that there might be one spot where from being eliminated through discredited with being less expensive by far than the old-fashioned method of fighting for it. used to be. On the waste-barrels instead of the bald injunction, "Throw rubbish here," a winning request, "Please help us to keep the city clean." Citizens have been seen to read that sign and walk back half a block to pick up a banana skin. Most people are not familiar with the sight of a woman smoking a cigar. smoking offended the guardians of the probably not far wrong in saying that a woman looks better with a cigar in her mouth than when she is chewing gum. Certainly she could not look

The American government has been keeping house for Cuba while the mistress of the house was sick. Now that the temporary caretaker is pre-paring to leave, it has been decided that Cuba will have to pay the ex-Since Cuba is poor, however, there will be no unneighborly haste in collecting the bill, which will amount to Zorn, Gazette, West Plains; J. West St. 000,000 or $3,000,000.

Wonder, Nev., wants a sky pilot who is handy with a gun. Where is the ministerial gent of this community who used to preach, shave, cut hair, shampoo, guarantee to raise a crop on president, E. K. Lyles, Houston Herbald heads, talk from both sides of his mouth at one and the same time and occasionally bound into the aquar-ed circle, jabbing, punching, uppercutting, side-stepping and saying worldly-yea, carnal-things under his breath until roughly jolted into dreamland? He should take his professional kit and hike for Wonder, because the call is for just that sort of a fighting parson. for another term.

Women, according to the decision of a Cleveland lady who has investigated ported favorably on the following for matter, can never be the equals of men as long as they wear fine in spreading this doctrice.

strongly for opigrams. They make attractive reading, but are not sufficiently expansive for the purposes of the Monticello Journal, J. H. Cren-an editor who enjoys Mr. Stead's de shaw of the Osteopathic Brief, E. O. served reputation as a voluminous pro-

Caruno has signed a contract which provides that he shall receive a salary of $300,000 a year for the next four years, instead of bringing your boy up to be a life insurance president ake him a tenor.

Queen of Spain has decided not to narsa her hely? Many a child has Sourished on nothing but near-busian a man accorded in Remakiys was real the members of the Western Federa stage money

MISSOURI EDITORS

FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL SESSION WELL ATTENDED.

OMAR D. GRAY ELECTED PRESIDENT

Retiring President Philip Ganaz Start Movement for Country Club and Camping Grounds for Editors.

St. Louis -- Omar D. Gray, editor o the Sturgeon Leader, was unanti elected president of the Wissourt Pro-Association at the concluding sesate of the forty-first annual meeting of that organization, held at the Laclede otel. The other officers are,

First vice-president, C. M. Harris Gallatin; second vice-president, J. R. Lowell, Moberly; third vice-president H. J. Simmons, Clarence; recording secretary, J. C. Bumbarger, Memphis corresponding secretary, R. M. White Mexico; treasurer, H. A. Gass, Jeffer

Have Pictures Taken.

Immediately after the afternoon ses sion Thursday the editors assembled an American woman say "thank you." in front of the Laclede hotel and sev Then, doubtless, Henry never earned eral pictures of the group were taken, after which they were loaded into two special Wellston cars at Sixth and Chestnut streets and were carted away off to Wellston, where the scribes and their wives were received by about thirty business men, their wives and daughters. The ride to Wellston was enjoyed by all, and when they reached there at 5:20, led by Charles J. Henninger, editor of the Wellston Her ald, they marched up Easton avenue to the First National Bank, where the festivities continued until after midnight. At the First National Bank the party was received by S. W. Jerden, president of the bank, and his wife. The interior of the bank was turned into a club room. Cigars wer passed around and punch was served. From the First National Bank they proceeded directly across the street to the State Bank of Wellston, where they were received by Joe Kassler, president of that institution. Refreshments were also served there. The crowd then proceeded upstairs to the Wellston club room. Chas. J. Heuntager was ister of ceremonies.

Camping Grounds for Editors. Editors comprising the Missouri State Press Association will soon be the joint possessors of a camping, hunting and fishing ground, unless the sentiment diminishes which marked the closing minutes of the forty-first annual convention at the Laclede hotel Friday. The movement was started by President Philip Gansz of the Macon Republican, who painted in such glowing colors the delights of a spot in the southern Ozarks, where the streams purl and the trees murmur, and the pen may be laid aside for the fishing rod and the shears for the gun, that the editors fairly shouted when he had finished, and made a motion that a committee be appointed to take up the matter and report as soon as possible. President Gansz will an sounce the committee within a few Members Present. Albert O. Allen, Record, New Madrid; Ovid Bell, Gazette, Fulton: Jack Blanton, Appeal, Paris; J. S. Brenneman, Capital, Sedal'a; J. V. Bumbarger, Democrat, Memphis; J. P. Campbell, Prospect News, Doniphan; H. F. Childers, Free Press, Troy; S. A. Clark, Republican Record, Carrollton; J. W. Cox, News, Monine City; Sam W. Davis, Democrat, Butler; J. H. Ed. wards, Kansas City Journal, Jefferson the man might keep his vocal powers City; Howard Ell's, Leader, New Flor ence; Philip Gansz, Republican, Macon; H. A. Gass, Missouri School Jour-If Editor Stead can secure peace by nal, Jefferson City; Omar D. G av. Leader, Sturgeon; Steve J. Harris. persuading American young men to Courier, Kirkwood; C. M. Harrison, raise $1,000,000, his method must be North Missourian, Gallatin; Charles J. Henninger, Herald, Well ton; Earl R. Hodges, Heralf-Post, Mokane; C. C. One of our cities is cleaner than it W. O. L. Jewett, D-mocrat, She bina: Sam Keller, Globe Democrat, Jefferson which stand on the streets is painted. City; Charles W. Knapp, Republic, St. Louis; John A. Knott, Journal, Hanni bal; Rev. Josephus Lee, General Bap tist, Sikeston; J. R. Lowell, Democrat, Moberly: Russell Monroe, Times, Tipton; C. W. Mulinex, Star, La Belle; Clie H. Mulinex, Damocrat, Edina; L. O. Nelson, Eagle, Buncetou: W. R. Painter, Democrat, Carrollton; Miss Georgina Raby, Dawn, St. Louis; Wes

but the old Indiana woman whose L. Robertson, Democrat, Gallatin; W. J. Rouse, Democrat, Monroe City; W St. Louis Union railway station was P. Ruffel, Missourian, Glasgow; H. J. Simmons, Courier, Clarence; E. H. Smitht, Courier, Charleston; J. M. Sosey, Spectator, Palmyra; F. H. Sosey. Spectator, Palmyra; William Southern, Jr., Jackson Examiner, Independence; H. W. Steinbiss, Labor Compendium, St. Louis; W. L. Thomas, School and Home, St. Louis; Dan Frazer, Thompson Eagle, Eldon; J. P. Tucker, Gazette, Parkville: Fred L. Wensel, Advertiser-Courier, Hermann; H. M. Whelpley, Meyer Bros. Druggtst, St. penses of the American occupation. Louis; R. M. White, Ledger, Mexico; L. M. White, Ledger, Mexico; T. B. White, Enterprise, Warsaw; Will H.

Goodwin, Bazoo, Sedalla; Ben F. Wood, Herald, Laredo. The retiring officers of the association are as follows: President, Philip Gansz, Macon Republican; first viceald; second vice-president, C. M. Har. rison, Gallatin North Missourian; third vice-president, J. R. Lowell, Moberly Democrat; recording secretary, J. V. Bumbarger, Memphis Democrat; corresponding secretary, R. M. White, Mexico Ledger; treasurer, Howard A. Gass, Jefferson City Missouri School Journal. The last three named editors were re-elected to the same positions

The committee on credentials renew members of the association: James Tidd of the Maryville Demoin these. There are plenty of men who cell gladly do all they can to assist tille Republican. Roscoe McCane of the Moderly Mouttor, Charles R. Monroe of the American Boys' Magazine.

W. T. Stead does not go in vory strongly for opigrams. They make attractive reading, but are not sufficiently expansive for the purposes of an editor who enjoys Mr. Stead's descreted reputation as a voluminous pro
Mayfield. Lewis W. Motre and John

Memorial to frish Novelian.

She reflected. "Very well," she as but to could not trust myself. I went away to my own rooms.

I thrust thoughts of her from my mind. I spent the night guaranteed an editor who enjoys Mr. Stead's descreted reputation as a voluminous pro
Mayfield. Lewis W. Motre and John

Mayfield Lewis W. Motre and John

Memorial to Irish Novellan.

She reflected. "Very well," she as between deposite the man. I stood for a moment with Town Indight."

Memorial to Irish Novellan.

She reflected. "Very well," she as between deposite the man. I stood for a moment with Town Indight."

Memorial to Irish Novellan.

Memorial to Irish Novellan.

Memorial to Irish Novellan. crat, H. L. Hutchinson of the Mary-ville Republican. Roscoe McCane of longed to go straight at her about ists declare that the report on the economic and political situation of the economic and political situation of the Congo independent state, which was made public last week, studiously avoids giving the information demand-

What does it really matter that the power of Spain has decided not to make the partiamentary commission.

Condens Minery Trist.

Brussels, June 19.—The Internation of man arrented in Seathlys was real man arren

VINOTIT AND by the BORRY

CHAPTER XIV-Continued. She gazed at me without fluching. "And I suppose," she said satirically, "you wonder why I-why you are re pellent to me. Haven't you learned that, though I may have been made into a moral coward, I'm not a physica coward? Don't bully and threaten

I put my hand strongly on her shoulder—taunts and jeers do turn me aside. "What did mean?" I repeated. "Take your hand off me," she

"What did you mean?" I repeated ternly. "Don't be afraid to answer." She was very young—so the taunt stung her. "I was about to tell you," said she, "when you began to make

I took advantage of this cate myself from the awkward position in which she had put me-I look my hand from her shoulder. "I am going to leave," she an-

"You forgot that you are my wife," "I am not your wife" was beswer, and if she had not looked shildlike, there in the moonlight all white, I could not have held myself in check, so insolent was the tone and so helpless of ever being able to win her did she make me feel.

"You are my wife and you will stay here with me," I reiterated, my brain on fire.

"I am my own, and I shall go where please, and do what I please," was her contemptuous retort. "Why won't you be reasonable? Why won't you see how utterly unsulted we are? I don't ask you to be a gentleman-but just a man, and be ashamed even to wish to detain a woman against he

I drew up a chair so close to that to retreat, she was forced to sit in the broad window-seat. Then I seated myself. "By all means, let us be reasonable," said I. "Now, let me explain my position. I have heard you and your friends discussing the views of marriage you've just been expressing. Their views may be right, maybe more civilized, more 'advanced' than mine. No matter, They are not mine. I hold by the old standards-and you are my wife -mine. Do you understand?" this as tranquilly as if we were discussing fair weather. "And you will live up to the obligation which the marriage service has put upon you." She might have been a marble statue pedestaled in that window seat. "You married me of your own free will-for you could have protested to the preacher and he would have sustained you. You tacitly put certain conditions on our marriage, I assented to them. I have respected them. I shall continue to respect them. But -when you married me, you didn't marry a dawdling dude chattering 'advanced ideas' with his head full And that man is your husband."

I waited, but she made no comment not even by gesture or movement. She simply sat, her hands interlaced in her lap, her eyes straight upon

"You say let us be reasonable," I went on. "Well, let us be reasonable, There may come a time when woman can be free and independent, but that time is a long way off yet. The world is organized on the baisls of every woman's having a protectorof every decent woman's having a husband, unless she remains in the home of some of her blood-relations.

even Langdon's activities against me. I felt that Anita was somehow, in part "rights." But while our country's in at least, the cause; but, even so, how dustrial territory is vast, the interests of every decent woman's There may be women strong enough had he succeeded in convincing Roe-to set the world at defiance. But you buck that I must be ellipped and are not one of them—and you know it. plucked into a groundling? You have shown it to yourself again and again in the last forty-eight hours. the Manasquale mines," I decided. Your bringing-up has kept you a child "I thought I had given over my conin real knowledge of real life, as trol of them, but asmehow I must distinguished from life in that fash- still have a control that makes me ionable hothouse. If you tried to as too powerful for Roebuck to be at sert your so-called independence, you would be the easy prey of a scound- And I resolved to take my lawyers rel or scoundrels. When I, who have and search the whole Manasquale lived in the thick of the fight all my transaction—to explore it from attic life, who have learned by many a sure to underneath the cellar flooring. prise and defeat never to sleep ex-cept with the sword and gun in hand, and one eye open-when I have been trapped as Roebuck and Langdon have just trapped me-what chance would a woman like you have?" She did not answer or change ex-

"Is what I say reasonable or reasonable?" I asked gently. "Reasonable - from your standpoint," she said. She gazed out into the moonlight, up into the sky. And at the look in her face, the primeval savage in me strained to close round that slender white throat of hers and crush and crush until it had killed in her the thought of that other man which was transforming her from marble to nesh that glowed and blood that surged. I

I ignored this. "Think it over, Another of real womanhood near her. "Every question: "Do you think we shall be tained in less than five minutes.—In dian Review.

I urged—she scemed to me so thing's ready for you there and I'm wrecked."

After the captain answered many Mayfield, Lewis W. Moore and John and Roebuck had bound me, hand and foot. I now say they were ropes of steel-and it had long been broad "If you want anything, there will be "Po you want to say good by to said found material for some of him?" incurred the cantain.

Cannot Research acking in information.

| which is in every rope

THE WEAK STRAND No same creature, not even a an buildog, will fight simply from love fighting. When a man is attacked the may be sure he has excited eith fear or cupidity, or both. As far as I could see, it was absurd that cu-pidity was inciting Langdon and Roe-

But what could it be? than even Langdon, all of them ex-cept possibly Dykeman, the lawyer, more formidable figures than L. Yet none of these men was being assatted. "Why am I singled out?" I asked myself, and I felt that if I could anbuck against me. I hadn't enough to tempt them. Thus, I was forced to conclude that I must possess a strength of which I was unaware, and which stirred even Roebuck's fears swer, I should find I had the means plotted against me. wholly or partly to defeat them. But Mutual fear had ma't annoy you. Or you can get me

Hiy to her, and went away, enjoying the pleasure of having startled her into visible automichment. "There's a better game than loy hostility, you very young, young lady," asid I to myself, "and that game is friendly cure for the present and my men in finance were Galloway and Roebuck. In Spain I once saw a fight between a bull and a tiger-or, rather the beginning of a light. They were released into a huge fron cage. After circling it several times in the same direction, searching for a way out, they came face to face. The bull lossed the tiger; the tiger clawed the bull. The bull roared; the tiger acreamed. Each retreated to his own side of the cage. The bull pawed and snorted as if he could hardly wait to get at the tiger; the tiger crouched and quivered and glared murde as if he were going instantly to spring upon the bull. But the bull did not rush, neither did the tiger spring. That was the Roebuck-Galloway sit-

How to bait Tiger Galloway to at tack Bull Rosbuck—that was the prob-lem I must solve, and solve straightway. If I could bring about war be me there were six principals in the proposed Coal combine, three of them richer and more influential in finance than green Laure land more influential in finance there was a change than green laure land more influential in finance there was a change than green laure land more influential in finance and finance there was a change than the laure land more influential in finance and finance a fusion I might bear off part of my fortune. Certainly, conditions would result in which I could more easily get myself intrenched again; then, too, there would be a by no means small satisfaction in seeing Roebuck clawed and bitten in punishment for having

Mutual fear had kent these tw

THE PRIMEVAL BAYAGE IN ME STRAINED TO CLOSE ROUND THAT SLENDER WHITE THROAT AND CRUSH AND CRUSH.

dustrial territory is vast, the interests equally vast, and each plutocrat is tormented incessantly by jealousy and suspicion; not a day passes without conflicts of interest that adroit diplomacy cound turn into ferocious warfare. And in this matter of monopolizing the coal, despite Roebuck's the combine was purely defensive, and was really concerned only with the labor question, Galloway, a great manufacturer, or, rather, a huge levier tentative plan for stirring him to ac- or tastse fly.

earnest assurances to Galloway that could not explain to my satisfaction | at peace for five years, and most con had he succeeded in convincing Roe of the few great controllers who determine wages and prices for all are

"It must have something to do with ease so long as I am afoot and armed." "We'll go through it," said I, "like of the taxes of dividends and interest ferrets through a ship's hold." As I upon manufacturing enterprises, could was finishing breakfast, Anita came in. She had evidently slept well, and I regarded that as ominous. At her age, a crisis means little sleep until a decision has been reached. I rose, but her manner warned me not to advance and try to shake hands with

"I have asked Alva to stop with me here for a few days," she said formally.

"No, not exactly that," answered the frightened man. "You see, the thing information.

She had not asked one of her own friends; she had asked a girl she had met less than two days before, mer of 1904, while on a trip up the

Packed to Be Stolen

me, and if we are going to the bottom The steamer Morning Star, com- I just want to tell him what I think of nanded by Capt. Brown, in the sum- him." manded by Capt. Brown, in the sum-To Cure Neuralgia. Here is a simple method of curins not but be uneasy.

Before I rose that morning I had a cated. It is not liable to horse fever

Why He Wanted to Know

"She was here yesterday morning." ists, was caught in a severe storm, Anita explained. And I now wondered and the waves washed the decks re-Maine coast with a party of excursiontransforming her from marble to flesh that glowed and blood that surged. I pushed back my chair with a sudden noise; by the way she trembled I gaged how tense her nerves must be. I rose and in a fairly calm tone, said:
"We understand each other?"

Anita explained. And I now wondered how wondered how much Aiva there was in Anita's peatedly. The captain assured the passengers that there was no immediate the right side of the face the left hand should be placed in a hasin of water as not as can be borne. Or if most carefully concealing my delight—for Aiva near her meant a friend stepped forward and asked the capalled water. It is asserting the same of that in this way be chaired to the right side of the face the left side of the face the left water as not as can be borne. Or if the face the left water as not as can be borne. Or if the face the left water as not as can be borne. Or if the face the left water as not as can be borne. Or if the face the left water as not as can be borne. Or if the face the left water as not as can be borne. Or if the face the left water as not as can be borne. Or if the face the right hand should be placed in the left side of the face the left water as not as can be borne. Or if the face the right hand should be placed in the left side of the face the left water as not as can be borne. Or if the face the right hand should be placed in the right hand should be placed in the left water as not as can be borne. Or if the face the right hand should be placed in the left water. It is assert. of mine and an advocate and example tain, time and time again, the same ed that in this way rolled may be ob-

Packed to Be Stolen

"No; but there's an awful racket in the maranders, what is it to us the face and coath, the maranders, what is it to us the face and there is not then the the maranders, what is it to us the face and the wholes in surface party on be subject. The maranders is not the face and the surface in our fall amount of views and wake up to the surraing and be the maranders.

WON FURLOUGH FOR JEEMS.

Artiess Appeal That Touched the down town in my electric. It shows how badly Anits was crippling my brate, that not sutil I was almost at my office did it occur to me: "That was a tremendous luxury Roebuck in-dniged his conscience in last night. Humor lightens everything, ev trim war. Jefferson Davis, with all the weight of a losing cause on his shoulders, could yet spare time to ap-R isn't like him to forewarn a man en when he's sure he can't escape reclate and respond to an artiess Though his prayers were hot in his mouth, still, it's strange he didn't try eal. The incident is reinted by Capt. Otherland. Among the numerous pa-ers received by the confederate presto fool me. In fact, it's suspici est, the following turned up one

Suspicious? The instant the idea was fairly before my mind, I knew I had let his canting fool me once more. I entered my offices, feeling that the blow had already fallen; and fall it will within an hour or so-be

And fall it did. At eleven o'clock, just as I was setting out to make my to myself.

every mine shut down."

at a sleeper in a burning ho it a sleeper in a burning house.
"Naturally," said I, unruffled, appar

"We must do something!"

claimed.

ently. "What can we do about it?"

"Yes, we must," I admitted. "For cially when two or three dozen peomust attend to your usual routine.

"What are you going to do?" he cried. "For God's sake, Matt, don't

And he quieted down and west. I hadn't been schooling him in the fire-

I went up the street and into the great banking and brokerage house of Galloway and Company. I made my way through the small army of guards.

behind which the old beast of prey was intrenched, and into his private den. There he sat, at a small, plain table, in the middle of the room without any article of furniture in it but his table and his chair. On the table was a small inkstand, perfectly clean a steel pen equally clean, on the rest attached to it. And that was all-not a letter, not a scrap of paper, not work. It might have been the desk of a man who did nothing; in fact, it was the deak of a man who had so much to do that his only nope of escape from being overwhelmed was ter the instant it was presented to the powerful form, bolt upright in that stiff chair, and from the cynical, masterful old face. But to me the chief quality there revealed was that quality of qualities, decision—the greatest power a man can have, except only courage. And old James Gallo

He pierced me with his blue eyes keen as a youth's, though his face was seamed with scars of seventy tumnituous years. He extended toward me over the table his broad, stubby white hand—the hand of a builder, of a constructive genius. "How are you, Blacklock?" said he. "What can I do for you?" He just touched my hand before dropping it, and resumed that idol-like pose. But although there was only repose and deliberation in his manner, and not a sugger tion of haste, I, like every one who came into that room and that presence, had a sense of an interminable procession behind me, a procession of men who must be seen by this master-mover that they might submit important and pressing affairs to him for decision, it was unnecessary for him to tell any one to be brief and "I shall have to go to the wall to day," said I, taking a paper from my pocket, "unless you save me. Here is a statement of my assets and liabilities. I call to your attention my Coal holdings. I was one of the eight men whom Roebuck got round him for the new combine—it is a secret, but I assume you know all about

He laid the paper before him, pur on his noseglasses and looked at it.

(To be Continued.)

Zebra Would Be Useful.

Of all wild animals the zebra would way had both.

pointed.

him. Many things could be read for despatch and clear away each mata sign of work or of intention ple are watching un. Also,

"Go to your desk," I comm drill for fifteen years in vain.

keep me in suspense!

There Me Prosident-I want you to let Jeems C. of Co. onth, 5th South arolina Regiment, come home get married. Jeems is willin', Jeems Capt'in he sin't willin'. I was surprised, but not relieved, when we all are willin' 'cept Jeems Capt'in, I think you might let up and fore I can move to avert it," said I let Jeems come. I'll make him go straight back when he's done gut mar-ried and fight hard as ever. "Your affectionate friend," and so first move toward heating old Gallo-way's heels for the war-path, Joe came

Mrs. Davis, telling the story, adds that Mr. Davis wrote his directions in regard to the matter on the back-of in with the news: "A general lockoperators have stolen a march on the men who, so they allege, were secrete letter. They were: "Let Jeems go."—Youth's Companly getting ready to strike. By night every coal road will be tied up and Memento for President Diaz. Joe knew our coal interests were With a simple but impressive ceremony President Diaz was presented heavy, but he did not dream his news with the military painting portraying meant that before the day was over the action of his command in the batwe would be bankrupt and not able tle of Puebla against the French to pay fifteen cents on the dollar, However, he knew enough to throw him into a fever of fright. He watched forces in the war of the invasion. The painting, which was the work of the artist Francisco de P. Mende my calmness with terror. "Coal stocks professor in the national school of fine arts and of the military college, was executed at the request of the govare dropping like a thermometer in a cold wave," he said, like a fireman ernors of 12 Mexican states, and was presented as a personal gift to the chief magistrate. The painting represents Gen. Diax to action in the glorious battle which won fame for the Mexican forces, and at the moment instance, we must keep cool, espewhen the forces under the direct command of Gen. Diaz saved the day.

> Our Queer Sense of Humar. "Americans have a strange sense of humor, don't you know," began the man. "The othah day, for example. I went into a restaurant with a friend and he awsked for sinkahs. I was surprised to see them bring him three biscuit of some sort or othah.
> Again at anothah time I dized with him at a table d'hote cafe. He said to the waiter, Bring us a couple of bottles of pink ink.' What the walter brought him, don't you know, was two bottles of red wine.

-Mexican Herald.

"Really, it is very strange, th American sense of humor. You catch outo my meaning?"—N. Y. Press.

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right Starch were used. In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trou ble can be entirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes The Business Instinct.

A party of tourists were visiting the ancient landmarks of England, according to a writer in the New Orleans Times-Democrat, and their guide was supplying them with valuable historic "This tower," he remarked, "goes back to William the Conqueror. "Why, what's the matter?" inquired one of his listeners. "Isn't it sa How's This? We offer One Hundred Dollars Beward for any time of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hair's Cetarrh Care.

Cetarri Care.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Tolodo, O.

Wa. the undereigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and helisve him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry oct any obligations made by his ferm.

WALDING, KIRMAN & MAKIN,

Hall's Catherin, Windessie Draggietts, Tolodo, O. Walding, Ritwan & Makrist, Walding Observation of the Machine Draggists, Tolado, O directly upon the blood and mesons surfaces of the system. Textimostate sent free. Price II cents per bottle. Sold by all Draggists.
Take Hair's Family Pills for constipation.

Amendment Not Accepted. Mrs. Jagaway-I wish I knew where my husband was.

Mrs. Kawler—You mean, I presume.

that you wish you knew where your husband in? Mrs. Jagaway-No, I don't. I know where he is. He's up in his room, sleeping off a headache.

Bibulous. "He has his faults, of course," said the friend, "but he is an amibitious poet. He would serve the muses all "Very likely," replied the critic. "But he makes the mistake of suppos ing that Bacchus is one of the mu on all other makes; it is more eco nomical, does better work, takes less time. Get it from any grocer. Glass mirrors were known in A. D 23, hat the art of making them was lost and not recovered until 1200 in

Even wisdom may be only skin

Is acknowledged to be the most suc-cessful remedy in the country for those painful aliments peculiar to women.

For more than 20 years it has been caring Female Complaints, such as Inflammation, and Ulceration. Falling and Dispincements, and consequent Spinal Weakness. Bucknehe, and is peculiarly adapted to the Change of Life.

Records show that it has cared more cases of Female fils than any other one reasely known.

Lydin E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound disactors and exprise pain, weight, and headache are relieved and permanently used by its unformable. Indignation. Blenting. Nervous Prantention, Weakness of the real Debility; also, Bizzkness. Fainteen Prantention. Headache. Genand want to be left along feeling. Irritability, Nervousen Sizeptem and want to be left along feeling. Irritability. These new save indications of Patalensy. Melanacholin or the "Bose." These new save indications of For Kidney Complaints of either my Lydin E. Pinkham's Vegetable.

For Kidney Complaints of either my Lydin E. Pinkham's Vegetable.

Mers. Pinkham's Standbeau for the Pinkham's Vegetable.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women softering from any form of female semigation are invited by: Pickham. Lynn. Man. for advice. the is the Mrs. Pickham to the house for the Mrs. Pickham to have been been deviced by the last have been found from the seminal for mother in law Lydia E. Pickham, and helping the seminal seminal for mother in law Lydia E. Pickham, These she is seed qualified to guide sick number by health. Her advice is feen and showays height.

A NERVOUS SUFFERER CURE BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS The Medicino That Makes Rich, R Stood and Performs Wonders at a Tonic for the Nerves.

Why are nervous people in The answer to that question expla-why a remedy that acts on the bloom

It is because of the intimate w between the red corpuscles in the ble and the health of the nerves, n nervous system receives its nourish ervous system receives its nourishman come thin, weak and colories and a nerves are starved—the victim is start on the road that leads to nervous was Nervous people are pale people—but to pallor comes first. Enrich the big and the nervous are stimulated and to up to do their part of the work of up to do their part of the work of up to do their part of the work of a body. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills me red blood and transform nervous, in able, alling people into strong, energy forceful men and women.

Mrs. Harriet E. Porter, of 20 Liber avenue, South Medford, Mass., apr.

"I had never been well from cide hood and a few years ago I began have dizzy spalls. At such times I cost not walk straight. I was afraid paralysis and was on the vers a nervous prostration. Then nearly set in and affected the straight. set in and affected the side of my hear The pains in my forehead were sentiating and my heart pained me so to my doctor fested neuralgia of the hear I tried several different kinds of me ment but they did me no good.

"One day my son brought me some Dr. Williams" Pink Pills and I for that they strengthened my nerver took several boxes and felt bette it over y way. These were no more did every way. There were no more dis-attacks, the neuralgia left me and I ha in ansemia, rhoumatism, after-effects, aches, nervousness, neuralgis, and espartial paralysis and heomotor stara.

Our booklet "Nervous Disorder, a Method of Home Treatment will be sent free on request to anyone interest." sent free on request to anyone interests Write for it today, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold t all druggists, or will be sent, postal on receipt of price, 50 cents per bor, a boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. William Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. T The worst thing about comm ense to that it is so unfashionable

A broad-minded man never loss any sleep because another man's one ions fall to agree with his own.

FITS, St. Vitus Dance and all Nervas Diseases permanently cared by Dr. Klas's Great Nerve Restorer Send for Free En-trial bottle and treatise. Dr. R. H. Klas, Ld., 931 Arch St., Philadelphia, P. A Good Charger. Client-Didn't you make a mistals in going into law instead of the army!

Lawyer-Why? Client-By the way you charge there would be little left of the enemy. With a smooth Iron and Defiance Starch, you can launder your shirtwaist just as well at home as the steam laundry can; it will have the proper stiffness and finish, there will less wear and tear of the goods, and it will be a positive pleasure to use a Starch that does not stick to the Corroborative Evidence "Are you engaged?" asked the young i, thinking be had noted a lack of welcome. "Yes," replied the girl, 'but for this evening only. There's my es gagement ring now," she added, as the electric doorbell sounded. The Human Shield. The advent of Decoration day caus ed Admiral Dewey, at a recent dinnet. to praise the bravery of the American troops during the civil war.

"Both sides allke were brave," he said. "North and south, soldiers and sallors. And the bravery of the raw recruit was a thing to be seen to be believed.

"There used to be circulated connectithough, a good story about a Connecticut recruit. This young man, after he had gotten initiated, fought heroically; but in his first engagement he was "A chum of his was in the line ahead of him, and when the bullets began to fly, the chum began to dorde "Thereupon the recruit shouted escitedly: "'Hey, Jim, don't duck. I'm be hind ye." Defiance Starch is the Intest inven-

